

RAIL EUROPE GROUP INTERNSHIP

Analyst in SALES AND E-Business Departments.

Main task is to prepare the reporting and analysis on the company's websites (Rail Europe Group Inc. and EuroVacations.com).

Task performed on a regular basis:

- Daily and weekly dashboards reports
- Data mining on both websites (audience, access queries)
- Various analysis and reports as requested by the Sales and E-Business Departments
- Tracking and summarizing the CHAT product sales (car, hotel, air, tour) for all the agencies targeted in the business plan.
- Update statistics and sales report for each Business Development Manager according to their target and goals.

Requirements:

- Strong computing skill is mandatory
Excel, Access and PowerPoint skills (2000 edition). Good HTML skills (at least, Dreamweaver usage) is required. A solid experience of the web and email are also required.
- Good general knowledge of Internet and E-Business.
Thorough understanding of what is e-Marketing, the online travel industry, e-business rules and specifications. A previous experience in a dot.com company or an e-commerce department would be a plus.
- Figures and Analytical skills
Experience in statistics, reporting and various analysis. The candidate must be interest in figures and have good analytical skills.
- Fluent in English.

We offer:

One-year internship starting (July 1, 2005).

Salary: $13 per hour based on 40 hours per week.

Round trip transatlantic fare Europe-USA.

American Holidays as observed by the Company.

13 days paid time off per year prorated to the number of month the internship is approved for.

Interested candidates must send resumes and letters of intent to:

clamori@raileurope.com

Interviews will be conducted in Paris in March 2005.