

Senior position available in Contemporary History
Specialty: the 19th century

---

- High level of scholarship as attested by publications.
  - Excellent teaching skills ranging from college (undergraduate program with a large first-year student body) to PhD level.
  - The capacity to coordinate and supervise research and develop research projects.
- This is a public-sector position.
- The application must consist of:
- a cover letter explaining reasons for applying;
  - a detailed CV with a complete list of the candidate's research work;
  - a short CV;
  - three examples of the candidate's main research work (books or papers in academical journals) in two copies each one.

A selection committee will examine these documents in accordance with the provisions of French law no. 2007-1199 of 10 August 2007 relative to public-sector teaching positions.

For further information, please contact Professor Marc Lazar: marc.lazar@sciences-po.fr